2015 Festival of Food Trucks for a Great Cause

Support the Children of Suncoast Christian Academy & Build a Brighter Future for Lake Worth

LAKE WORTH, FL, November 3, 2015 – Suncoast Christian Academy, a PK-2 through 5th grade, non-profit school, invites the South Florida community to attend its 2015 Fall Festival Hoedown, a Food Truck Bonanza with a rustic twist. This fundraiser is scheduled for Thursday, November 5. Gates open at 5:30 PM. Participants can purchase tickets online at www.scafallfestival.eventbrite.com

The “2015 Fall Festival Hoedown,” sponsored by The Door Doctor of South Florida, will benefit the children of Suncoast Christian Academy, a non-profit educational institution serving as the hub of the Lake Worth community. Admission to the event is $7, and children under the age of 3 are free. All proceeds will go toward advancement of the school's educational resources.

This festival, starting at 5:30 PM, promises to be an evening of fun for the entire family. Music will be provided by Big Smile Entertainment, while participants prepare to kick up their heels in an evening of line-dancing to country, bluegrass, and folk tunes. This community-centered event is a Suncoast Christian Academy fundraiser. Some of South Florida's most popular food trucks, P.S. 561, Parabas Grill, Gene's Joint, Holy Cow Subs, and Aitola La Famiglia, just to name a few, have already decided to donate 10 percent of their sales to this great cause.

“This festival is poised to be a great kick-starter to our annual fundraising campaign,” said Doris Lockett, Head of School. “We are grateful for community-minded businesses and donors who are excited to invest in the education of our children.”

Festival goers will have the opportunity to win a free garage door opener, with installation provided by the event sponsor, The Door Doctor. In addition, participants may join guided art sessions provided by Paint With Faith, a unique art experience that will allow them to leave with their very own original painting. Hayrides, a petting zoo, face painting, and more will be offered.
